Dear Cherry and Law Library Staff:

The Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries appreciates your many efforts to make the 1991 Annual Meeting an enjoyable and educational experience for the members attending the meeting. Without your hard work and planning the meeting would not have been such a success.

I have heard many reports from members about the meeting. They all enjoyed the programs, the special activities, events, and, most importantly, the wonderful hospitality from the Law Library staff. Your efforts made all this possible.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Timothy L. Coggins
President, SEAALL
